CHAMPIONS PARK: KEY INFORMATION

THE CHAMPIONS PARK IN A NUTSHELL

A new and exclusive concept for the 33rd edition of the Games, the Champions Park is a collective celebration of medal-winning athletes.

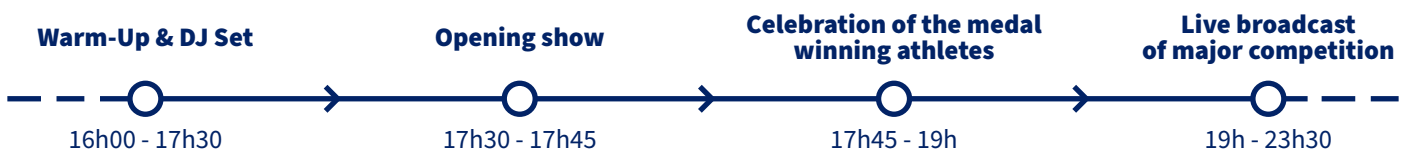

A place for sharing, conviviality and celebration, the Champions Park has been designed to make the experience unforgettable for athletes and spectators alike.

Grab your flags in the colours of your favourite athletes and celebrate them as they parade through the heart of the Trocadéro!

SPECTATOR CODE OF CONDUCT

- ✓ In the free circulation areas of the site, I respect the spaces reserved for people with disabilities.
- ✓ I am respectful of the venue and the environment. I use the designated paths and throw any litter in the waste containers provided.
- ✓ I behave in a civil and exemplary manner. Violence, racist, discriminatory, sexist, anti-LGBT+, and offensive remarks or behaviour have no place at the Games.
- ✓ To encourage my favourite athletes, I can bring a flag (without a rigid poles). We're counting on you to make your voice heard!

OUR ADVICE

Given the simultaneous organisation of various competitions in the Île-de-France region, large numbers of passengers are expected on public transport services.

It is strongly recommended to plan sufficient time for your journey on public transport and to arrive at the Parc des Champions as soon as the gates open.

ACTIVE MOBILITY MODES

One free bicycle parking zone, open from 1h30 before the start of the session to 1h30 after the end, is available to spectators on the day of the event:

→ Allée Maria Callas, near to Place du Trocadéro - 75 016 Paris

Bicycles helmets, electric batteries and other equipment are prohibited within the competition venue and must be left at the parking zone. Paris 2024 may not be held liable for any theft or damage.

ACCESSIBILITY

TRAVEL OPTIONS

MOTOR VEHICLE

A drop-off zone for spectators with disabilities and parking spaces for wheelchair users are available on Boulevard Delessert at the intersection of Avenue des Nations Unies (75 016 Paris). Wheelchair parking is also available on Rue Foucault (75 116).

Find all access arrangements on the accessibility page of the Paris 2024 official website.
